

You Made a Difference!

Your Donations to the Silent Auction to Benefit the Arts and Crafts Research Fund have led to Articles, Books, Films, and Seminars, including:

*More Stickley Homes      Redux      The Roycroft Campus Museum
Fulper Glazes      Stickley Brothers Furniture and Metalware      A.A.P.A. Journal
The Manufacture of Arts and Crafts Furniture by Gustav Stickley
The Splendid Disarray of Beauty      Victor Toothaker      Eloise Roorbach
Creating Beauty: Jewelry of the Arts and Crafts Movement      Grueby Pottery
The Stickley Museum at Craftsman Farms      Gustav Stickley Film Documentary
The Arts and Crafts Movement In the Pacific Northwest      Marblehead Pottery
The Gustav Stickley House in Syracuse      The Rose Valley Museum and dozens more!*

---

As well as “Arts and Crafts Lifetime Achievement Awards” to Robert Winter, Kitty Turgeon, David Cathers, Stephen Gray, and Rosalie Berberian.

---

Plus the Educational Display Cases presented each year at the National Arts and Crafts Conference

---

So, How Can You Help Continue the Tradition?

Just pick an Arts and Crafts item, vintage or recent, you have stuck away that would excite another collector, then email Bruce Johnson about it. You can either send it in January or bring it with you in February. It's that easy to make a difference!

Bruce1915@gmail.com

25 Upper Brush Creek Road, Fletcher, NC 28732

---